

City of Boston IN CITY COUNCIL

RESOLUTION OF CITY COUNCIL PRESIDENT MICHAEL P. ROSS on behalf of the City Council

- WHEREAS: Marilyn Brambilla began working at City Hall as a member of Councilor Brian McLaughlin's staff in September 14, 1994 and continued on to be the Business Manager for the Boston City Council. She has committed over 15 years of service to the Councilors and their respective office staff; and
- WHEREAS: Over the years, Marilyn has been responsible for personnel related matters including payroll and employment paperwork, making sure everyone receives their paychecks and are properly listed in the system. She performs all of the duties that allow the City Council to operate from purchasing stationery and computers to making sure bottled water is delivered to the staff. Whenever a copy machine is in need of repair she is the person who contacts the vendors to ensure the problem is rectified; and
- WHEREAS: She has worked with four former Council Presidents: James Kelly, Charles Yancey, Michael Flaherty, Maureen Feeney, and current Council President Michael Ross, and three staff directors. Marilyn has coordinated major social functions including inaugurations, budget lunches, and end of the year recognitions for the Councilors; and
- WHEREAS: All those who have come in contact with her throughout her tenure have admired her for her diligence and dedication to each and every task, large or small. What many may not know is her free time is spent working as an usher for various arts venues in Boston. She plans to spend her time completing house projects and traveling; Now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Boston City Council congratulates Marilyn Brambilla on her successful career, and declares October 2, 2009 to be "Marilyn Brambilla Day".
